

HAWAII CALLS

*The Grand Tour by Train & Dutch Ocean Liner
Hawaii Without Flying from San Diego with
Two Days In Honolulu
January 25 - February 13, 2027
20 Days From $4,995 pp*

While Hawaii is every bit as magical and enchanting as it was when Captain James Cook first came ashore, frankly, in recent years, the experience of getting to and around Hawaii has become less enjoyable. Packed flights without any meal service, delays, airport hassles, and, perhaps worst of all, a grim red-eye flight back to the mainland, not to mention packing and unpacking to visit three or four islands, all make this not entirely pleasant.

At Uncommon Journeys, we have a far more sensible and comfortable idea about how to do this. We begin with free or low-cost train travel from any U.S. city to Los Angeles and board the superb ms Koningsdam of Holland America Line for a nostalgic journey from the West Coast to Hawaii. The lazy days sailing to the islands are the perfect introduction to 'island time' as the locals put it. Once in Hawaii, you will explore them in great style and comfort, without having to hop on inter-island flights and changing hotels every few days. Instead, you will see Hawaii as it should be seen, by sea, approaching Diamond Head at dawn and cruising along the scenic Na Pali Coast of Kauai. And with the luxury of time, you will see it all, Hilo, Maui, Honolulu, and Kona, all in one glorious voyage.

Nicer still, as befits a tranquil destination where the air is softer, the breezes gentler, and the views inviting, your comfort and ease are paramount. We have included a superb hotel in Los Angeles, the night before sailing and as a special treat, train travel along the famed 'Surf Line' to San Diego on sailing day, a short but marvelous trip of great beauty, traveling along the blue Pacific. Transfers to the ship on sailing day are included, and a professional tour host travels with you, with special parties & events just for our guests. Aboard ship, superlative cuisine from breakfast in bed to five-course dinners awaits, plus the services of an attentive staff and grace notes, like fresh flowers, rich furnishings, staterooms that are wonderfully outfitted, a choice of dining venues, a spa . . . and more!

FEATURES:

Free or reduced-rate train or air travel to Los Angeles from any U.S. city, a great way to avoid the endless hassles of air travel.

Overnight deluxe hotel stay in Los Angeles with breakfast before we sail, train travel to San Diego along the Pacific coast, transfers and luggage handling.

18-night voyage to Hawaii round-trip from San Diego aboard the ms Koningsdam of Holland America Line, featuring an overnight in Honolulu spent aboard ship! Unpack once and enjoy six different destinations.

Complimentary shore excursions in every Hawaiian port of call, a great value and money-saving bonus!

Aloha brunch at the fabled Royal Hawaiian Hotel in the Surf Lanai during our stay in Honolulu.

Fully hosted from start to finish by a professional tour manager, with special cocktail parties and events just for our guests.

SHORE EXCURSIONS

We have added in an amenity that every experienced cruise traveler will immediately appreciate. A comprehensive shore excursion is included in each port of call, carefully chosen and presented with our compliments. Rather than the usual dreary tour with little sightseeing and lots of shopping, we have included such treats as a visit to stunning Waimea Canyon, the fabled 'Grand Canyon of Hawaii' during our port call in Kauai and during our stay in Honolulu, to Pearl Harbor. The quality of these excursions is typified by the fact that one of the many included treats is our lunch at the legendary Royal Hawaiian Hotel, a nostalgic and elegant interlude.
