GOING-TO-THE-SUN ROAD - MONTANA

Glacier National Park has long been one of our favorite places on Earth. Established as a National Park in 1910, it is a land sculpted by prehistoric ice rivers, where mountain ranges rise dramatically above alpine meadows, deep forests, shimmering waterfalls, some 25 glistening glaciers, and more than 200 sparkling lakes.

With its crystalline waters and the famed Going-to-the-Sun Road stretching across the Continental Divide, few places compare to Glacier National Park. And while a holiday devoted solely to Glacier would be extraordinary, in this journey it is only the beginning. After our time in the park, we continue on to a spectacular Alaska Inside Passage cruise aboard Holland America's stylish ms Eurodam, visiting the very best of the Inside Passage—including majestic Glacier Bay National Park. And since not all grandeur is outdoors, the Eurodam surrounds guests with inspired elegance, spacious staterooms and suites, refined service, and nearly two centuries of maritime tradition.

Our adventure begins with overnight train travel aboard the Empire Builder, departing from Portland, Seattle, or Midwest points and gliding toward Whitefish, Montana. Two full days of comprehensive sightseeing in Glacier National Park follow, featuring the Going-to-the-Sun Road, a scenic cruise on Lake McDonald, and visits to Many Glacier and Swiftcurrent Lake. A fine hotel, daily breakfast, and a casual welcome dinner are, of course, included.

After exploring Glacier, we journey west on a scenic drive to Spokane, Washington, with a visit to charming Coeur d'Alene, Idaho—a pretty lakeside town framed by forested hills. In Spokane, another excellent hotel awaits. The next morning, a pleasant four-hour drive brings us to Seattle, where the EURODAM is ready to welcome us aboard. Once at sea, guests enjoy the attentive service, superb dining, and timeless atmosphere that has made Holland America a leader in leisure ocean travel.

All aboard!

DAILY ITINERARY

DAY 1 — Empire Builder to Whitefish, Montana

All aboard for adventure! Depart Portland, Seattle, or Midwest points this afternoon on the storied Empire Builder, bound for Big Sky Country. Settle into the rhythm of the rails and head to the Sightseer Lounge, where oversized windows frame ever-changing panoramas as we roll over the BNSF Railway.

DAY 2 — Glacier National Park

Awaken to mountain silhouettes and big Montana skies as we arrive in Whitefish. A short transfer brings us to our hotel. This evening, enjoy a relaxed welcome dinner—a perfect chance to meet your fellow adventurers and toast the journey ahead.

DAY 3 — Glacier National Park

Today delivers classic scenic grandeur. Explore the valleys and towering peaks of the Many Glacier area, —one of the park's most dramatic settings. Continue to Glacier Park Lodge, the largest log structure in the world, before an afternoon cruise across the glassy waters of Two Medicine Lake.

DAY 4 — Glacier National Park

A spellbinding day lies ahead. We travel the legendary Going-to-the-Sun Road aboard iconic red jammer buses, climbing high along sheer cliffs and alpine vistas. Later, board a scenic cruise on shimmering Lake McDonald, framed by the rugged ramparts of the Continental Divide—one of the West's most photogenic landscapes.

DAY 5 — Spokane, Washington

This morning we set out on a scenic westward drive, passing mountain valleys and forested lakes on our way to charming Coeur d'Alene, Idaho—one of the prettiest small cities in the Rockies. Continue to Spokane, where the afternoon is yours to explore. Don't miss the roaring Spokane Falls, just a short walk from our hotel and an impressive sight in any season.

DAY 6 — Board Eurodam

A beautiful drive carries us across Washington to Seattle's waterfront, where Holland America's Eurodam awaits. Enjoy a special lunch en route before boarding your elegant ship. At 5:00 p.m., the whistle sounds—our grand adventure north begins as we sail for Alaska, the Great Land.

DAY 7 — At Sea in the Inside Passage

DAY 8 — Stephen's Passage & Juneau

Stephens Passage is the best shortcut in the world, a straight line through Southeast Alaska in a landscape that comes with very few straight lines. It's not only people and ships that use the passage: Concentrated in and around its waters is a greatest hits of Alaskan wildlife, from humpback whales, the whoosh of their breath loud enough to be heard almost a kilometer away, to giant sea lions and their very distinctive smell—well, okay, call it a stink—that can carry just as far.

Guarded by mountains and fed by an icefield that never melts, Juneau is a breathtaking capital city with wilderness at its doorstep. The mighty Mendenhall Glacier is a highlight—an ever-shifting river of blue ice that inspires awe.

DAY 9 — Cruising Glacier Bay National Park

Few places on Earth rival Glacier Bay for sheer scale and majesty. Sail past towering mountain ranges that soar to 15,000 feet, their massive snowfields feeding more than a thousand glaciers. Watch for calving ice walls, floating bergs, and wildlife along the rugged shores of this natural cathedral. Icy Strait Point is a popular cruise destination on Alaska cruises and is only open when a cruise ship is in port. This historical town is filled with history and culture.

Day 10 - Sitka, Alaska

A storied past mixed with jaw-dropping scenery sets Sitka, Alaska apart from other ports. Located on Baranof Island surrounded by the Sitka Sound's icy blue water, it not only boasts lush scenery and captivating wildlife, Sitka offers a unique glimpse into Alaska history.

DAY 11 — Ketchikan, Alaska

Welcome to Ketchikan—Alaska's "First City" and one of its most colorful. Cradled between mountains and sea, the town buzzes with floatplanes, fishing boats, and waterfront life. Explore its totem poles, heritage, rainforests, and lively docks where adventure is always close at hand.

DAY 12— Victoria, British Columbia

Arrive in charming Victoria, a delightful blend of Old World elegance and Pacific Northwest beauty. Stroll the Inner Harbour, or enjoy a drink at the famed Empress Hotel.

DAY 13 — Seattle, Washington

This morning we return to Seattle, bidding farewell to newfound friends and a journey filled with unforgettable moments.
